

Reliant Trinity River

Wind Festival

SATURDAY, MAY 14, 2011

Trammell Crow Park
3700 Sylvan Avenue
Dallas, TX 75207
Noon - 6 p.m.

The Reliant Trinity River Wind Festival

is the only event of its type in the Southwest!
Join the Dallas fun to celebrate the beauty and spirit of the wide open spaces along the Trinity River in the heart of this thriving City. Everyone is invited to bring their family and friends to fly a kite, watch the spectacular show kites and enjoy other wind driven toys or crafts. Paddle a kayak, make paper airplanes, applaud Steve Martin and his fabulous exotic birds, and round out the day at the Dallas Wind Symphony concert.

FREE Family Fun!
Kites, Kayaks and Birds!

Show kites are amazing to watch and are

Coming to Dallas!

You are invited to be part of this sensational new event that will bring thousands of people to the Trinity River. For a century, City leaders and citizens have wanted to use the land along the river for recreational events and with these tough economic times, let's bring on the free fun and adventure! This event truly showcases one of the most unique resources in Dallas!

Program Highlights

- All events and activities are FREE including parking
- Show kite teams from the Southwest
- REI and Kayak Power - Paddle Adventure on Trammel Crow Pond, tent displays
- Blackland Prairie Raptor Center will showcase their gorgeous rehabilitated raptors - see them up close
- Hot Air Balloons on display
- Steve Martin, world renowned animal behaviorist and his beautiful birds from 'Soar' and the Dallas Zoo - exclusive 4:30 p.m. performance
- Demonstrations: UTA Ultimate Frisbee, Hang Gliding, Paper airplane making
- Food vendors, kite vendors (purchase required)
- Dallas Wind Symphony performance at 5:15 p.m.
- Participants bring their own kites, pinwheels, whistles, hand thrown glider planes, scarves, and other wind driven toys or crafts to fly
- Dallas City Council and major sponsors to appear – Reliant, Kroger, REI, WRR Classical 101.1 FM, Xerox, Clif Bars, Honest Tea!

Photo courtesy of Debby Standefer

